LEWIS COUNTY NEWS EVENTS ARE REPORTED

Telegram's Correspondent at Weston Records Happenings of That Section.

WESTON, Dec. 2.—The death of Mrs. West, the wife of Albert West, of Vada, took place a day or two ago. She had been ill for a number of weeks. The husband is well known here, being engaged for years as a blacksmith at various points in the county.

Local people are showing more than their ordinary interest in football, since the West Virginia University's victory over Wesleyan is now generally regarded as having been largely due to the good playing of Russell Bailey, a Weston boy.

Jane Lew high school folk, as well as the people down there are elated over their basketball triumph over Weston.

Samuel, the aged lumber dealer is very ill at his home here. Others who are regarded as dangerously ill are Mrs. Martin McLaughlin and Mrs. John J. Williams.

There are a number of cases of diphtheria in the city and there have been more than eight at present. The health officials and the local practitioners have worked together very commendably toward stamping it out and it is now said to be under control.

Dr. A. J. Wooster was called to Orlando Tuesday to see Laban Currence, the venerable father of the well-known Clarksburg jeweler of that name. Mr. Currence is reported to be in a very critical condition.

December 12 has been named as the date for the formal dedication of the new Baptist church, and Pastor Taylor, of the Clarksburg church of that denomination is to officiate, with the Rev. E. J. Wooster, D. D., of Salem, assisting him.

Zane Ellis, who broke his arm a couple of weeks ago, is able to resume work at Kane's hardware store.

Miss Edith Newton, of Clarksburg, is a guest of Mrs. Paul Zobrist.

Miss Grace Whitesel, who is employed in the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Clarksburg, was here to spend Sunday with her parents. She will leave next week to accompany her sister, Mrs. W. J. Wilson, to Euclid, Fla., to spend the winter.

Pastor Scott, of the United Brethren church, announces that he will begin a series of special revival meetings on the first Sunday of the month.

A number of young folk from various schools were home for the Thanksgiving vacation.
